

Classroom Strategy Series – Meet Ben Sures, Author of "The Boy Who Walked Backwards"

Join us for this LIVE virtual session

Hosted by the Indigenous Professional Learning Opportunities Coordinators

Join us to learn how he felt compelled to author this children's book.

Working with children often has educators thinking/dreaming about writing a book. The fun things that happen daily could make for a great storyline!

A true story about a boy named Leo who tricked the Indian Agents resulting in him not going back to Residential School. Ben will tell his story of how he came to write the book and welcome questions from participants.

Maybe YOU could be that next author!!!
